

Press Release

MIDWEST FOOD BANK EARNS 4-STAR RATING FROM CHARITY NAVIGATOR

Date: October 25, 2019

Normal, IL – Midwest Food Bank

Midwest Food Bank's strong financial health and commitment to accountability and transparency have earned it a 4-star rating from Charity Navigator, America's largest independent charity evaluator. This is the eighth consecutive year that Midwest Food Bank has earned this top distinction.

"Midwest Food Bank's exceptional 4-star rating sets it apart from its peers and demonstrates its trustworthiness to the public," according to Michael Thatcher, President and CEO of Charity Navigator. "People can trust that their donations are going to a financially responsible and ethical charity when they decide to support Midwest Food Bank."

"It is important to use the financial support we receive in a wise manner," says David Kieser, President and CEO of Midwest Food Bank. "Our 4-star Charity Navigator rating demonstrates to our supporters our good stewardship."

Midwest Food Bank has eight locations in the United States, and two international locations, East Africa and Haiti. It began in 2003 on Kieser's Bloomington, Illinois farm. As a faith-based organization, it is the mission of Midwest Food Bank to share the love of Christ by alleviating hunger and malnutrition locally and throughout the world and providing disaster relief; all without discrimination. More information is available at midwestfoodbank.org

Contact:

Phil Hodel
Midwest Food Bank
309-663-5350
phodel@midwestfoodbank.org