MIDWEST FOOD BANK PEORIA, IL, HIRES EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

PEORIA, IL – Midwest Food Bank Peoria, IL, has hired Audrey Kamm as the new Executive Director. Audrey will assume the role effective February 1, 2023. She most recently served as an HR Talent Management Analyst for State Farm.

Christa is an accomplished leader with an undergraduate degree from Colorado Technical University and a Master of Arts from Lincoln Christian University. With over 20 years of leadership experience, she has demonstrated success in operations, strategic planning, and employee relations. Her dedication to community service is evident from her roles as Vice Chair of Big Brothers and Sisters and the Multicultural Leadership Institute.

“Christa’s leadership skills and her passion for community welfare are a perfect match for Midwest Food Bank,” says Eric Hodel, CEO of Midwest Food Bank. “She has a strong alignment to the MFB mission.”

As Executive Director, Christa will be responsible for ensuring MFB programs are executed with efficient use of facilities, employees, and volunteers. She will also manage budgeting, fundraising, community engagement, and other requirements for not-for-profit operations.

“Joining Midwest Food Bank is an honor,” says Christa. “I am eager to apply my expertise to support an organization that significantly impacts so many lives.”

Midwest Food Bank operates 12 locations, ten in the United States and one each in East Africa and Haiti. In 2023, MFB distributed $470 million of food at no cost to 2,400 nonprofit agencies. To learn more about Midwest Food Bank, visit their website at <http://midwestfoodbank.org>.

Midwest Food Bank (“MFB”) is a private, non-profit 501(c)(3) charity. As a faith-based organization, it is the mission of Midwest Food Bank to share the love of Christ by alleviating hunger and malnutrition locally and throughout the world and providing disaster relief; all without discrimination. Our vision is to provide industry-leading food relief to those in need while feeding them spiritually.
